Diligent Health Solutions Launches Communication Center in Trevoze

HCP-Staffed Center Serves the Life Science Industry

Bucks County, PA: Mary Anne Greenberg and Ron Abel, both Life Sciences industry veterans, have launched Diligent Health Solutions, nurse, pharmacist and medical communicator-staffed communication center serving the pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical device industries.

Mary Anne, Diligent's CEO says, "We've assembled a talented and experienced staff. Our clients have easy access to subject matter experts and we've created a work environment that will attract and retain top talent. There's never been a better time to provide the industry with the right people and the latest technology to best serve their needs and those of the people they serve---patients, caretakers, and health care professionals."

Ron Abel, Diligent's CFO, says "Diligent offers our clients customized and cost-effective solutions and unsurpassed attention from senior executives. We take a long-term view of our client partnerships and invest resources to ensure our clients meet their goals and objectives and are fully satisfied with our services."

Diligent provides a broad range of services, including medical information and patient engagement programs, creation of health information content, medical device support, telephone-based pharmaceutical sales, and product recall support. Diligent is a woman owned business located in Trevoze, PA
